What happens when the clumsiest kid in the world discovers a secret super computer belonging to the world's greatest special agent?

He is the scourge of international criminals, the nemesis of evil-doers everywhere. He's a man of mystery, a super snoop. He's Secret Agent X-19, the greatest sleuth the world has ever seen. Or so everyone thinks...

In reality his name is Scooter and he doesn't really know what he wants to be, but surely not a pizza delivery boy. However, even though he's full of enthusiasm and blind optimism, it's the only job he is able to get and only because his best friend's father Atillio owns the Pizza Shop. In Atillio's eyes, Scooter is a klutz. He is a walking disaster – everything he touches falls over, blows up, or is somehow destroyed. It is amazing that the scooter he uses to deliver pizzas has so far remained intact. Scooter is always trying Atillio's patience. Melanie – his best friend – is 15 and patient with Scooter's theory that he is destined for greatness; maybe she is completely smitten by him – but she would never admit that. Especially not to her father and her smug little brother, Mario.
