Synopsis

Season 1

Storyline / Idea

#LikeMe tells the story of Caroline – ‘Caro’ to her friends – a young girl who lives happily with her parents in a remote village. As an only child, Caro has a unique bond with her mum and dad, she enjoys school, she has a nice bunch of friends, everything is going well for her... until disaster strikes.

After a long period of struggling with her health, Caro’s mother is told she has an aggressive form of cancer. When Caro is confronted with this terrible news, her once so beautiful world falls to pieces. But she has to be strong for her mother’s sake and roll up her sleeves to help her father. When Caro’s mum’s health keeps getting worse and the distance between their home and the hospital becomes too big for her to bridge every day for treatment, the family is forced to leave behind everything that is familiar to them and to move to the city.

Caro says goodbye to all her friends, her school ... and thus to her old life. This is the point at which her story really starts. After all, such dramatic events change more than just your home and your surroundings. For Caro everything changes, starting with her school. Caro’s first day at her new school is thus a decisive day in her teenage life. Not only has she ended up in a school full of strangers, she also has to start everything again from scratch: making new friends, navigating her way up high school’s tricky hierarchical ladder... In short, she is facing a huge challenge.

#LikeMe is a musical series that shows youngsters the lives of other youngsters in a unique and contemporary way. By using witty dialogue, familiar situations, pressing issues, strong characters and, of course, powerful music, we are able to really get through to them; on the one hand because they recognise themselves in certain characters and situations, and on the other hand because it’s always fun to take a peek inside the lives of their peers. Besides its entertainment content, this series also has room for the educational aspects that give youngsters and their families food for self-reflection and dialogue.

Music

Musical is a genre that is close to many youngsters’ hearts. For adolescents and children, music is a widely used means of communication. It has become a form of universal expression that they use at school, in their private lives and on social media. As befits a good musical series, everything in #LikeMe is based on powerful songs: songs that move, surprise, entertain and linger.

Caro

Caroline is an only child. At first sight, you'd describe her as just another face in the crowd. But that's because Caro isn't overly bothered about how she looks. She feels best in comfortable clothing and prefers to be inconspicuous. But Caro is a girl who has her heart in the right place. Thanks to her warm and loving upbringing, she has been instilled with the precious norms and values that make her an honest and sweet young lady.

Because of her home situation, Caro is rather withdrawn. She is therefore only too happy to get lost in her books. For that reason she is often an easy target for bullies, but she is strong enough not to let their pestering really get to her. Together with her new best friend Yemi, she tries to see the positive in everything... unfortunately, some people take advantage of that. Caro is the type of girl who will quickly win the hearts of the viewers. What she feels, thinks and does will be familiar to many of them and therefore easy to identify with.

Family Timmers

Kristel Timmers is Caroline's mother. Despite her terrible suffering, she never loses her exceptional optimism. Although we see her decline becoming increasingly obvious, she always tries to mask the severity of her illness. She nevertheless tries to face up to the facts, without glossing them over, and has a rational and realistic view of her prognosis.

Peter Timmers – Caroline's father – is a man with a heart of gold. Peter's love of nature inspired him, his wife Kristel and their daughter Caro to move to the countryside. For Peter, his dreams had come true: he had a wife he loved dearly, a daughter who was the apple of his eye, his dream job and the most picturesque house in the area - a perfect life... Until fate struck and Peter's wife Kristel was diagnosed with cancer. Out of love for his family, Peter sets aside everything else and devotes himself to getting Kristel the very best treatment. Peter says goodbye to his life in the countryside and he, Kristel and Caro move in with his mother-in-law.

Valentine Jacobs, aka 'DeeDee', is Caroline's grandmother. DeeDee is a tower of strength for Caro and her family. She does everything she can to make her home a warm and welcoming nest for them and give the Timmers family the cosy security they so desperately need in these trying days. Despite her age, she is a woman who knows what she wants and doesn't shy away from sensitive topics. All of these qualities make her a grandmother anyone would wish for.

Vince Camille

Vince is a real womaniser. Although he comes over as intrepid and tough at first, Vince is actually a very sensitive boy. Behind that façade of 'high school hottie', hides a boy who is very insecure.

Vince isn't yet sure what he wants to do with his life and as a result he finds it hard to set priorities. A side effect of this is that he is having to repeat his school year. Luckily, he manages to maintain his cool status at school thanks to his relationship with It girl Camille. That these two are together more for show than for actual love soon becomes apparent. Unlike his girlfriend, Vince is warm and endearing. But that young man is harbouring a big secret...

Camille is the girl that most other girls want to be and most boys want to be with. She's a spoiled brat that lives a luxurious life. Her lifestyle comes at a cost, because she almost never sees her father who is always working. She has her mother Monique to rely on, but the two of them don't get along.

At school, this beautiful blonde with a keen sense of fashion has the reins firmly in her hands. Although Camille is in many ways an absolute bitch, she also has a human side, a side she keeps deeply hidden away... a side that nevertheless occasionally surfaces.

Dance

Yemi is pals with everyone. He is a young guy who can adapt to every person and almost every situation. Yemi is therefore never the butt of jokes or teasing. Although many would class him as a 'nerd', in his own unique way he does radiate a certain coolness.

When Caro first arrives at the school, Yemi is the first to befriend her. He takes her under his wing, shows her the ropes and soon they forge a close friendship. Yemi's good nature makes everyone around him happy and relaxed. Within #LikeMe Yemi provides the humorous note. His unrequited love for It girl Camille is simultaneously cute and comical, while his dogged loyalty to his friends is both admirable and disarmingly beautiful.

Kyona is most definitely not cool. And she doesn't try to be otherwise. Her main concern is achieving good marks at school. Just like Yemi and Caro, Kyona is one of the playground misfits. But unlike Caro and Yemi, she doesn't let herself get caught up in the daily events on the playground

Kyona is a much-needed support for Caro. Whatever Caro goes through, she can always rely on Kyona to be a listening ear, to give good advice and to be a true friend. Kyona, Yemi and Caro thus form the perfect trio. They complement each other and meet each other's needs perfectly. The bizarre thing is that we actually find out very little about Kyona. Is she simply shy and withdrawn, or is this seemingly ordinary girl hiding a big secret?

New in Season 2

Scott & Maria

Scott Klijnen – Scott Klijnen is the school's lone wolf. He does not like hassle and has a very short fuse. Scott's parents have little affinity with their son. He doesn't have a warm family circle. He does not know love and friendship. It's something he sees and experiences for the first time at school ... with Vince. They used to be best friends. Until Scott had a relationship with Camille and she ended up starting something with Vince. Scott was not so much concerned with the relationship between Camille and Vince, but with the lies that Vince told him to keep his relationship with Camille a secret. Scott's confidence has been damaged and their friendship has never been the same since.

Maria Hernandez – Maria Hernandez is a strong, free-spirited and confident girl, who always stands up for injustice. She has a big mouth, but also the heart in the right place. She may have a plus size, but that doesn't bother her. Her motto is "rather a size more than a lasagna less"! Love and friendship are priorities in Maria's life. She attaches so much importance to them that she can become jealous and possessive in her darkest days.

Maria comes from a lower educated family and contributes to her family by working for her pocket money herself. She realizes like no other adolescent that if you want something, you have to work hard for it and nothing comes naturally.

New in Season 3

Emma

Emma Wolfs – Emma Wolfs (17) is the niece of school principal Karel Wolfs. She is a new pupil at the school but she soon finds herself in the spotlight due to her rebellious behaviour. She has no regard for hierarchy and rules and as a result has been expelled from various schools in recent years.

As a final resort, her parents have moved to Antwerp with Emma so that she can go to Uncle Karel's school. They hope that their hot-headed daughter can get through her last school years without too many problems. She is Uncle Karel's favourite niece and she uses this to her advantage. So Emma starts the new school year with the right attitude, but when Karel chooses a friend for her (Caro) to keep her on the straight and narrow, her stubborn and rebellious nature quickly emerges. She won't be able to change her uncle, but she might be able to entice that goody-goody Caro to „the dark side.“

Olivier Dubois & Philippe Meeusen

Olivier Dubois – Vince Dubois’s dad – is probably one of the coolest fathers any 16-year-old boy could imagine. At least, that’s what the average adolescent would think of a father who is known throughout the world as a former top footballer and who has recently been appointed coach of the national team, a man who lives in a gigantic villa and – according to the daily newspapers – enjoys the most glamorous of lifestyles. But as is so often the case, the behind-the-scenes reality is somewhat less than perfect. And of course nobody knows this better than this famous former footballer’s son Vince.

Life in the spotlight turns out not always to be a bed of roses. Olivier is leading a carefully concealed double life. Vince is the son of ... yes ... two fathers. After the departure of Vince’s biological mother, his father Olivier realised that he had feelings for men. Those feelings resulted in a long-term relationship with his life partner Philippe Meeusen. Because of his ‘manly’ profession, however, it is imperative that nobody outside their intimate circle should ever find out about their private situation. This naturally results in the necessary tensions within the household. In fear of being unmasked, Olivier rules his home with a heavy hand and this has its effect on ‘hubby’ Philippe and even more so on son Vince.

Philippe Meeusen – Vince’s second father – can best be described as a real drama queen. He is a touch on the chubby side and he hasn’t been particularly blessed in the looks department. But when he helped Olivier with his rehabilitation from an injury sustained on the football pitch, Olivier fell for his charms like a ton of bricks.

Philippe is a real bon vivant. Because of his melodramatics he often provides the necessary dash of humour in the household.

But appearances are deceptive. Although he will never admit it, maintaining a secret relationship for 10 years has taken its toll on Philippe. He feels insecure, and he sometimes overcompensates for this in the most extraverted ways.

Despite all the negative aspects of his life – and taking into account his husband Olivier’s busy schedule – Philippe does his very best to raise Vince as if he were his own son. As Vince is regularly up to something or other, this is seldom an easy task.

Pieter Botty,

Karel & Lucia

Pieter Botty – who is quickly nicknamed ‘Pieter Hottie’ by a few of the girls – is the latest addition to the teaching staff. This highly-motivated young teacher is like a fresh wind blowing through the school corridors. As a rookie among the teachers, he is more accessible to the pupils, younger and easier to relate to. This also has a downside: due to the relatively small age difference between them, the pupil-teacher boundaries are not always as clear cut as they would otherwise be.

Pieter and his pupil Caro share a love of literature. Thanks to a succession of misunderstandings, Caro even suspects at a certain point that Mr Hottie might be her secret admirer Ruben.

Karel Wolfs is the school’s warm-hearted, firm but fair headmaster. As a teacher, he is old-school, but he most definitely has his heart in the right place.

He is a man of vision who wants all the youngsters under his wings to develop their potential and become the best young adults they can be.

But Karel does have one fault: he enjoys being in the spotlight. He is therefore very happy that Vince – the son of one of Belgium’s top former footballers, who is now the new coach of the national team – is one of his school’s pupils.

As the school’s music teacher, Lucia coaches the musical projects the school intends to present to the public.

For the first edition of their (hopefully) Annual School Show, she soon finds a partner in crime in Mr Botty.
